

IDEA Part C Summer Family Newsletter

July-August 2012 Volume 2 No 4

Message from Part C's State Family Resource Coordinator, Information & Referral.....

Dear Parents/Families,

We know from research that the first three years of a child's life are important in forming the foundation for later growth and development.

We also know from research that parent participation in early intervention is very important, because the largest amount of a child's time is spent with the parent, rather than the therapist.

"Some simple calculations indicate that a twice-a-week hourly intervention or therapy, in the absence of parent involvement, accounts for only 2% of the total waking hours of a 1-year-old child (Roffwarg, Muzio & Dement, 1966), hardly enough time for any kind of intervention to make a meaningful difference in a child's life." (C. Dunst CASEinPoint, 2006 Vol. 2, Nbr. 2)

An early intervention professional who shows a parent the importance of everyday learning opportunities within their community or home will be able to increase a child's abilities and skills much more than one who depends entirely on an hour or two of therapy each week.

And when parents learn those strategies that will also help encourage the development of their children during daily routines, they are able to "teach" their children when the therapists are not around.

Library

There are a great many things to learn...

Check out the library catalogue for other titles at...
http://health.nv.gov/BEIS\_SpecialEdLibrary.htm

Book Title: "You Will Dream New Dreams", by Stanley D. Klein and Kim Schive.

The book contains more than 60 brief essays written by parents of children with disabilities.

The book is valuable for parents in many ways:

- The book focuses on parents' perspectives-there is no "professional" judgment or advice.
- The writing is gritty and real; the stories are authentic.
- The content stresses the importance of parents trusting their instincts and understanding that they know their child better than anyone else.

If you have recommendations for the Library, please let me know. Contact me at ddinnell@adsd.nv.gov

Zero-to-Three - www.zerotothree.org

For 25 years, this organization has worked to promote the healthy development of infants and toddlers by supporting and strengthening families, communities and those who work on their behalf. It offers publications and reference guides to programs, as well as an informative Web site, which includes a Brain Wonders section highlighting what parents should know about early childhood brain development and how they can stimulate their children's healthy development.
