Juvenile Justice Programs Office

It is the mission of the Nevada Juvenile Justice Programs Office to serve as a resource hub for Nevada's Juvenile Justice System in order to maximize the system's ability to rehabilitate youth and families with the overriding goal of reducing crime in our communities. The Juvenile Justice Programs Office focuses on connecting agencies to quality and effective treatment for youth by identifying and implementing best practice policy models through comprehensive research, recruiting quality service providers, promoting evidence based practices, and coordinating statewide and local data informed analysis.
